DISCOVERY
LIFT OFF IN NEW WORLDS

The INTERNATIONAL YOUTH CAMP in Bad Blankenburg lift off in new worlds!

In beautiful Thuringia, life is molded and changed. Young people speak of a particular atmosphere and community that they are looking for... We are personal, international and make it possible for you to encounter youth from all over the world. Fully packed in a colourful package of action, games, music and excursions. And Jesus? He will, of course, also be there, and wants to meet you and spend the holiday with you. It will all be wrapped up with the Alliance Conference... more people, concerts and a good Message.

Be there! Whether you simply want to enjoy incomparable community, experience more of Jesus, or you just need to get out of the house – You're in the right place with us! We're looking forward to meet you.

Your Camp-Team ☺
